

News Release

Toronto, June 18, 2010.
For immediate release.

NAFA announced today that Tina Jagros has resigned her position as Executive Director of North American Fur Association to pursue new opportunities, effective June 15, 2010.

Tina has played a leading role in the establishment and development of the Fur Association since its inception in 1999. She has been the creative and promotional force behind the establishment and growth of the NAFA family of brands internationally. Prior to the formation of the Association, she served as Vice-President of Marketing for North American Fur Auctions where she was responsible for the co-ordination of the promotional efforts of the company and its producer groups.

Tina's talents have earned her the respect of the fur industry in Canada and throughout the world and we are sure that all of her colleagues in the international fur trade will join NAFA in wishing her all the best in her future endeavours.
