NAFA and International Fur Trade Raise $20,000 for Victims of Italian Earthquake

In support of the victims of the earthquake which occurred in Italy on April 6, 2009, NAFA and the international fur trade put their hands together today during our auction.

Three Black NAFA Female lots were generously donated by Infelber (Exports) Ltd., Carlo Guida Ltd. and Mechutan Fur Corp. Westra Benno Richter, Beacon International Despatch, ASE (HK) Ltd., ITN Logistics Group and Scan Global Logistics each donated one lot of NAFA wild fur, while NAFA donated one lot of dressed Otter and dressed Coyote.

NAFA would like to recognize the individuals and organizations who purchased these lots:

Mr. S.P. Kong, on behalf of the Korean Fur Trade Association, purchased one lot of Mink and one lot of Can/Am Sable. Tim Everest purchased one lot of Mink on behalf of Polar Furs Ltd. Aristos Trading Company Ag purchased one lot of Mink. Norberto Albertalli purchased one lot of Northern Raccoon on behalf of Albertalli SpA. Alvin Glickman purchased one lot of Red Fox on behalf of Alvin Glickman Inc. Neil Pearson purchased one lot of dressed Coyotes on behalf of Nilsfur Export Inc. Phil Patterson bought one lot of Eastern Beaver on behalf of the NAFA Wild Fur Shippers Council, one lot of Fisher on behalf of the North American Fur Association and one lot of Dressed Otter to be donated to Studio NAFA's Designer Program.

The proceeds from the auction amounted to $17,095 to which NAFA further contributed to bring the total amount to $20,000. These funds will be given to SKY TV, who are collecting money on behalf of the "Italian Civil Protection" to be distributed to the victims of the earthquake.
