Day Three of NAFA's Spring Auction Produces Impressive Results Registered buyer attendance increases to 660

NAFA's large and high quality offering of over 265,000 mutation and pastel mink sold at very high levels and, in most cases, prices were firm to slightly advancing compared to April thereby re-establishing confidence in the market. Mahogany males sold under strong competition and, once again, prices increased 5% to 7.5%. All major markets were represented with Hong Kong/China again being the major buyer.
