

NAFA Welcomes Buyers to February Auction

Coyotes sell strong amid good competition from the international trimming trade

The first day of the February auction opened with NAFA welcoming an international crowd of nearly 400 buyers. The sale kicked off in NAFA's newly renovated and expanded auction room with a strong offering of over 70,000 Coyote selling at prices that rose modestly over last year's averages. Red and Grey Foxes sold at reduced levels.
