AUCTION REPORT

July 5, 2018

COYOTES CONTINUE TO PERFORM WELL

NAFA's July sale offered a late collection of 18,000 Coyotes. Heavy Western sections continue to be in strong demand, selling 100%, while the Easterns saw clearances of 88%.

Collections of previously offered articles including Otter, Wild Mink, Lynx and Red Fox were mainly withdrawn. Due to limited quantities of these articles, fresh skins were not offered.

A small offering of fresh Muskrats sold 53% at slightly easier levels compared to our May sale, while an offering of 14,000 Spring Beaver saw interest, primarily from the hatter market, resulting in 100% sale of Section III.

The sale continues tomorrow with ranch mink and Sable.

July Wild Fur Sale: Day 2 and 3

A previously offered collection of 18,313 Can-Am Sable sold over 50%. Better qualities and bigger sizes were sold primarily to Korea, while smaller sizes were sold primarily to Greece.

A collection of 1,541 previously offered Fisher sold 32%. Demand was limited to darker colored large males.

A small collection of 2,907 fresh Lynx Cats sold under strong competition, particularly for Western types with large sizes and clear bellies, with Italy and the United States being the primary takers. Commercial qualities were sold mainly to Greece. Flatter sections showed limited interest.

Fresh skins were only offered where quantities permitted.
